CLARENCE VALLEY TROPHY HUNTING

owners, Steve & Shirley Millard have generously donated a 4 nights & 3 full hunting days (day of arrival & day of departure not counted as hunting days) Silver Medal Red Stag trophy hunt for one hunter on the South Island of New Zealand! Schedule your hunt for open dates last week of March to mid-June 2024 or 2025

Hunt includes the trophy fee for one Game Estate SCI Silver Medal Red Stag, daily fees, personal guide, pick up & return to Blenheim Airport, accommodation with personal ensuite, exquisite views & traditional meals during your stay. Not included are before & after pick up/drop off expenses & costs associated with trophy export. The successful bidder must purchase a Fallow Stag (US $3,500).

Hunt is upgradable to a SCI Gold, Super Gold or bigger Red Stag by using the donation value of US $5,500.00 as a credit toward the published trophy fees. Also available are trophy quality Fallow Deer, Arapawa Rams, Wild New Zealand Goats, Wild Boar – all available at published trophy fees. Also, if requested, Steve & Shirley will work with the hunter to set up a Himalayan Tahr hunt (with/without helicopter) at an additional cost.

Additional hunting days may be added with cost dependent on animals to be hunted. Non-hunting observers are welcome at US $200 per observer per day, which includes transfers to and from Blenheim Airport, meals, accommodation and light refreshments. Additional hunters may be added at a daily rate of US $500 per hunter per day; however, should a hunter take a trophy over the value of US $3,000 then the daily rate may be waived.

Clarence Valley offers many tourist attractions. Shirley can organize whale watching, dolphin swimming, river rafting, Marlborough wine tasting, golfing on Kaikoura's magnificent course, or visiting the local shops in Kaikoura ( $\frac{3}{4}$  hour drive) or shopping in Blenheim (1  $\frac{1}{2}$  hour drive) or fresh water fishing in season.

Donor's Value: US $5,500.00
